

FORMATIVE TEST – I

CLASS : VI

SUBJECT: SOCIAL STUDIES

MARKS : 20

I.CONCEPTUAL UNDERSTANDING

(A)Choose the correct Answer and write it in bracket

4 x ½ = 2 M

1)  This Symbol represents ()

- A) Pucca Road B) The West C) The North D) The South

2) Longest Latitude ()

- A) Tropic of Cancer B) Equator C) Tropic of Capricorn D) Greenwich Line

3) Anthropologist who studied the Chenchus, the Konda Reddys and the Gonds ()

- A) M.N.Sreenivas B) Verrier Elwin C) Haku Shah D) Furer Haimendorf

4) The headman of the Gond Panch is ()

- A) Patla B) Sarpanch C) Chairman D) Secretary

(B)Answer the following questions

3 x 2 = 6 M

5) What are the important features of a Map ?

6) Why Sun always rises in the East ?

7) What are the major occupations of the tribes ?

II.Information and communication skills

4 x 1 = 4 M

8)Read the following paragraph carefully

Longitudes:

These imaginary lines run from one pole to the other. Unlike the latitudes, these lines are of the same length. There are two main longitudes – the Greenwich line, which is also called as ‘0’ degree longitude, and the International Date line.

Now answer the following questions

- i) What are longitudes ?
- ii) Which lines are not of same length ?
- iii) Name two main longitudes ?
- iv) Which line is also called as ‘0’ degree longitude ?

III. Reflection on Contemporary Issues an Questioning

1 x 4 = 4 M

9) Why do you think Community decision making was possible only within a tribe whose members were more or less equal ? What will happen if the members were not equal or if people from different communities lived together ?

(OR)

Do you accept the judgment of the Panchayat irrespective of police and court ?

IV.Mapping skills

4 x 1 = 4 M

10) Observe the following pictures and fill the boxes with the names of the shaded hemispheres.

